

Carlsbad Police Department

PRESS RELEASE

CRIME/INCIDENT: Pursuit and Arrest

CASE: 07-8760

DATE: October 1, 2007

TIME: 9:22 PM

LOCATION: 100 Juniper, Carlsbad

SUSPECT: Jackson, Patrick of Pauma Valley Age: 33

SUMMARY:

Officers tried to stop a BMW 335i for several Vehicle Code violations. The driver, Jackson, refused to stop, leading Carlsbad officers on an 70 MPH pursuit in the downtown area that began on Grand Ave, involved the hit-and-run of a parked car, and ended when Jackson stopped in the 100 block of Juniper and tried to run from the officers.

When Jackson tried to flee on foot, he ran into the path of the pursuing patrol car and was struck, breaking his leg.

Jackson said he fled because he didn't want to be arrested for DUI.

Jackson was taken to Tri-City Hospital for treatment and was booked into the Vista Jail for DUI, Evading, hit-and-run, and a parole hold.

Nobody, other than Jackson, was injured.
